Invitation

---

Dear colleagues,

It is a great pleasure and honour for me to organize the 7<sup>o</sup> “Live Surgery and innovations in coloproctology” symposium.

As always, it is an international meeting with famous colorectal surgeons from all over the world.

The focus of this conference will be on seeing and learning the latest techniques in colorectal Surgery from the very best. Live broadcasts of Surgeries and video sessions will be offered with the aim of improving our surgical skills in daily practice. Furthermore, the keynote lectures will make us think out of the box. And last but not least, this event gives us the opportunity to get to know colleagues from all over the world. Another aspect worth mentioning is the fact that Berlin is one of the most exciting cities in the world.

I am looking forward to great days in Berlin.

Yours
